Dear Sir/Madam,

Since we did not receive any update, our client telephoned the Home Office helpline and explained her situation as an attempt to obtain a verified copy of her passport before her marriage registration appointment deadline. However, our client was advised to reschedule her marriage registration appointment to allow the Home Office more time to provide her with a verified passport copy.

Our client's new marriage registration appointment is booked for 10 June 2025. Please see the attached appointment confirmation.

Therefore, we are reaching out to you again so that you can expedite the process and provide our client with a verified copy of her passport as soon as reasonably practicable.

Many thanks,
